पणजी, १७ डिसेंबर, १९७१.

(b) charge expenses at the rates fixed by the Council under sub-section (2) of section 274.

(2) A receipt for every payment of the pound-fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274 shall be given by the pound-keeper, for this purpose every pound-keeper shall be given a receipt book in such form as may be determined by the Council, with pages numbered in consecutive order and bearing the seal and signature of the Chief Officer and containing a foil and counter-foil of blank receipts.

8. Remittance of pound-fees.— All pound-fees collected by the pound-keeper shall be remitted to the Chief Officer with a duplicate memorandum in Form D showing the amount so remitted within twentyfour hours. The Chief Officer after crediting the amount received shall return one copy of the memorandum duly receipted to the pound-keeper and retain the duplicate as a copy of the receipt.

9. Procedure if cattle is not claimed within ten days.— If with ten days after any cattle has been impounded, no person appearing to be the owner of such cattle claims the cattle or the owner or his agent claims the cattle, but refuses or fails to pay the pound-fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274 the pound-keeper shall, as soon as the period is over, report the fact to the Chief Officer in Form E.

10. Notice of Auction Sale.— (1) The Chief Officer on receipt of a report from the pound-keeper under rule 9 to the effect that no person appearing to be the owner of the impounded cattle has claimed the cattle or that the owner or his agent had claimed the cattle, but refused or failed to pay the pound-fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274 within ten days after it was impounded, shall cause a notice in Form F to be put up on the municipal notice-board and on a conspicuous part of the pound and also at conspicuous places in the town in which the pound is situated, stating—

- (a) the number and description of the cattle,
- (b) the place where it was seized,
- (c) the place where it was impounded,
- (d) the date, time and place of the auction sale to be held and the conditions subject to which it shall be held.

(2) The Chief Officer shall also cause proclamation of the same in a local newspaper if any, and also give such additional publicity by beat of drum in the town or any other customary mode of publication as it may consider necessary.

11. Holding of Auction and Disposal of sale proceeds.— (1) The auction sale shall be held on the date and at the time and place specified in the notice under rule 10. At the auction sale the Chief Officer shall fix a minimum price for sale, such price being not less than the minimum amount required to be paid by the owner for getting the cattle released. If the auction bid is less than the minimum prices so fixed, the Chief Officer may dispose of the cattle in the manner laid down in rule 14 if he is satisfied that it will be more advantageous to Council.

(2) The pound-fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274 shall be deducted from the proceeds of the sale and the surplus shall be disposed of in the manner laid down in sub-section (4) of section 274.

12. Auction Sale when not to be held.— If at any time before the auction sale begins, the person appearing to be owner of the cattle pays to the Chief Officer the pound-fees and the expenses chargeable under section 274 and the amount of deposit by way of security under sub-section (1) of section 272 in respect of such cattle the auction sale shall not be held and the cattle shall be delivered over to him.

13. Register of Cattle received for Auction.— The Chief Officer shall keep a register in Form G of cases of cattle received by the pound-keeper for holding auction under section 273.

14. Disposal of unsold cattle.— If the cattle is not sold at auction under sub-section (1) or (2) of section 273, it shall be disposed of in such other manner, as in the opinion of the Chief Officer, would be advantageous to the Council; and any amount recovered by way of such disposal shall be set off against the pound-fees and the expenses chargeable under section 274. The difference between the full amount chargeable and the actual amount so received shall be written of as irrecoverable in the manner laid down in section 162.

15. Disposal of dead cattle in the pounds.— (1) If the cattle dies after it is impounded and is not claimed by the owner, it shall be disposed of in such manner as the Chief Officer may consider to be advantageous to the Council.

(2) The pound-fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274 shall be deducted from any amount received by such disposal and the surplus if any shall be disposed of in the manner laid down in sub-section (4) of section 273:

Provided that if the proceeds from the disposal are less than the amount of fee and the expenses chargeable under section 274, the difference in amount due on account of the said fee and expenses shall be written of as irrecoverable in the manner laid down in section 162.

16. Declaration of Ownership of and Security Deposit for Impounded Cattle.— (1) Every pound-keeper shall before releasing any impounded cattle require—

(a) The owner of such cattle or his agent to make a declaration of ownership of such cattle in Form H, and

(b) Such owner or his agent to deposit by way of security for each head of cattle specified in column 1 of the Second Schedule an amount specified in column 2 of that Schedule.

(2) Every pound-keeper who shall be provided with receipt book by the Council, shall, on payment of the security deposit, give a receipt to the owner or his agent in token of having received the deposit for the cattle released by him.

(3) If any cattle belonging to an owner who has paid a security deposit under sub-rule (1) are impounded within a period of six months from the date on which the deposit is made, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, half the amount of deposit shall stand forfeited to the Council; and for any such subsequent seizure within the said period of six months, the remaining amount shall stand forfeited to the Council. No cattle shall be released unless the owner makes good any part of the deposit forfeited under this rule.

17. Inspection of Registers and Accounts.—The Chief Officer or any other Officer of the Council authorised by him in this behalf shall inspect the registers and the accounts maintained by the pound-keeper and shall also check the cash balance with him at least once in every three months and shall sign in token of such inspection.
